

Worksheet: German Reunification and a New Europe

Consolidation and analysis

The fall of the Wall reopened the "German question". Within a year Germany was reunified and a divided continent began to integrate — the capstone of the elective.

Q1. What was the Two Plus Four Treaty, and which powers were involved?

Q2. Complete the table tracing the transformation from a divided to an integrating Europe.

Step	Year	Significance
Fall of the Berlin Wall
Two Plus Four Treaty; reunification
Dissolution of the Warsaw Pact and USSR
Maastricht Treaty; the EU

Q3. Explain why some governments were concerned about the reunification of Germany.

Q4. Evaluate the significance of German reunification for the reshaping of Europe after the Cold War.
